

November 10, 2022

Good morning! It's Irene Qiu from 731 and I'm here this Thoughtful Thursday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

On November 10th, Americans celebrate National Forget-Me-Not Day. The purpose of the holiday is to recognize all former and present members of the US armed forces who have suffered lasting wounds from combat.

National Forget-Me-Not Day was first observed in 1921 as a way to generate funds to help returning wounded soldiers.

Veteran's Day, which is observed on November 11th, coincides with Forget-Me-Not Day. These ceremonies commemorate the Armistice with Germany, which went into effect at 11 o'clock on the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918, marking the end of WWI.

We honor our soldiers on Veterans Day because they represent our nation and our values. Even though we will never be able to fully repay them for their dedication and efforts in keeping us safe, we should honor these heroes for their sacrifices. Simply said, "We owe them all," as someone once said, "even though we don't know all"

Thanks for listening have a Tribute to our Veterans Thursday 😊
