Good morning, Madeline Brennan School it's Zain and I hope everyone is doing well. Today for Tuesday we will talk about International Day of Non-Violence. Fun fact about this holiday, it was made in tribute of Mahatma Ghandi's Birthday. It started in 2007 and was declared a holiday by the United Nations General Assembly. I would like to share a quote by Mahatma Ghandi- "Non-violence is the greatest force at the disposal of mankind. It is mightier than the mightiest weapon of destruction devised by the ingenuity of man". We need to practice nonviolence with one another in our daily interactions if we want to bring about a peaceful world.

Also, tomorrow is a Jewish holiday known as Yom Kippur, it's a day in which the people of Jewish faith use prayer, repentance, and charitable giving to alter their destiny. In honor of this holiday, we do not have school.

Thanks for listening have a tranquil Tuesday
