

January 19, 2024

Good morning, I.S 201! It's Joanna from class 851 with the S.E.A.L Summaries on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

Today, we'll be discussing equity, and what it means to show it. Equity refers to showing fairness and justice to everyone; not giving them all the same treatment, but what each of them deserves. Equity is distinguished from what equality is. Equality means you provide the same to all, while equity stands for recognizing that we are not all the same, and each of us should be treated based on our different wants and needs. Therefore, we must acknowledge the importance of making adjustments to treat people with equity.

The affirmation of the day is: "I believe in a society where fairness is the norm." In our S.E.A.L Team's I H.E.A.R.T Me calendar, the theme for the month of January is equity. This month, let us all focus on showing equity to all, and spreading the vitality of accommodating others to their own unique needs and wants.

Thank you for listening and have a Focused-on Fairness Friday
